

Are desired by The Mahoning Dispatch job printing department. Every order is given prompt and careful attention. It is in need of printing of any kind, it will be a pleasure to submit samples and furnish estimates.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

BUYING AND SELLING EASY

If The Mahoning Dispatch advertising columns are used. No matter how small the announcement may be it is given the same careful attention as a page advertisement. Once an advertiser you will see the value of publicity. Rates reasonable.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By CLARENCE BAKER

Grank Boston was a Salem caller Friday.

Miss Lillian Senior was a Salem visitor Sunday.

Josh Allen of Salem was a village caller Saturday.

O. Bossett took the annual school enumeration this week.

James Babb of Sebring visited with friends here over Sunday.

L. P. Metzger of Salem was a caller in the village last Thursday.

Edwin Johnson of Columbiana spent Sunday with his parents here.

Miss Ruth Boussett is working for McKee & Co. in Leetonia.

Miss Mabel Ballantine of Leetonia called on friends here Friday.

James King spent Saturday and Sunday in Youngstown with friends.

Do not forget the Lyman Sisters' drama Friday and Saturday nights.

Harry Lampher of Leetonia was in town on business last Thursday evening.

Miss Alice Platt and sister Elizabeth were Salem shoppers Saturday evening.

Miss Mae Hutchinson of Youngstown was a Sunday caller in the village.

Charlie Bossett attended Odd Fellows Lodge in East Liverpool Friday night.

Mrs. Percy Tetlow and Mrs. Lambert Carrier were Salem shoppers Saturday.

Large yields of small fruits are expected by numerous growers in this locality.

Mrs. Lambert Carrier and Jessie Tetlow are visiting Mrs. George Lentz in Salem.

Howard Davis sprained his ankle last week and is not able to deliver his papers.

Ed. Vignon and Miss Laura Love of Youngstown called on Mrs. Louisa Vignon Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baker of Lisbon called on his brother, Harvey Baker, and family Monday.

Misses Kate and May Detwiler of Salem spent the week end with their aunt, Miss Lydia King.

Glenn Smedley of Sharon visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spedley Saturday and Sunday.

Fred Girard moved from one of the Y. & O. houses into Will Weikart's property on Baker alley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gabriel of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis returned to their home here last week after a few weeks' stay in East Palestine.

Mrs. Anderson and daughter Euphemia of East Liverpool spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Maxwell.

Hont Percy Tetlow left Monday for Colorado and other western points on a business trip in behalf of the miners.

Miss Ruth Smedley and gentlemen friend of Salem called on her mother, Mrs. Herbert Smedley Sunday afternoon.

Sheriff and Mrs. J. C. Umstead and Judge and Mrs. Anthony Calvin of Youngstown passed through the village Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grimm of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Comfort Sisco of Hickory spent Sunday with Mrs. Laura Grimm and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dalrymple and little son of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple.

William Holtz, who had an operation some months ago was up town last Thursday, it looked like old times to see him of the scene.

Marcel Guillery and Misses Ivel Greggs, and Marie Guillery of Youngstown were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lixell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker and daughter Josie and Mrs. Dickie of Salem and Mrs. Dan Sever and daughter Kathleen of Sebring were Sunday guests at the home of Squire Johnson and wife.

The Green township Sunday school association will meet in the Methodist church here Sunday afternoon and evening, May 23. The program printed in these columns last week will be followed.

The Memorial sermon will be preached by Rev. Voegtley in the Lutheran church Sunday, May 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., union services. The orders will meet at the school house and march in a body to the church.

Mrs. Charles Weikart entertained the Woman's Home Circle last Friday evening. Fancy work was the diversion of the evening. The hostess served a delicious lunch. The invited guests were Mrs. Gabriel of Salem and Misses Clara and Edith.

The grading for the slag road on the Washingtonville and Greenford road is progressing fast with a large force of men and teams. It is said that the slag will be hauled from the crusher at the Cherry Valley Co. in auto trucks. The Morgan brothers have nearly completed the grading of the Thicket Hill on the Market Route near Salem and are about ready to begin laying brick.

Wednesday evening, June 2, the annual commencement exercises of the Washingtonville high school will be held at school in Washingtonville, at which time a class of eight will receive their diplomas. Hon. Andrew Fleming of Youngstown will deliver the address. The names of the graduates follow: Misses Martha Thorpe, Elsiebeth Tyne, Lena Barrow and Freda Paul and Morris Kingensmith, Andrew Woods, Carl Muir and Russell Smith.

June 14 will be observed as flag day in commemoration of the one hundred and thirty-eight anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the flag of the United States. Patriotic exercises will be held in the schools and by the patriotic and fraternal societies. The American flag association has made appeals to the governors of the various states and the mayors of the cities of the country for a public observance of the day in their respective states and cities.

Mrs. George Vaughn went to West Point last Sunday.

Wm. Bailey moved back to West Point last Monday.

Ross Fisher attended the circus in Alliance Wednesday.

James King was a Youngstown visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Do not forget the Pythian Sisters' drama Friday and Saturday evenings, May 21 and 22.

Miss Eliza Wilkinson spent a few days last week with friends in East Palestine.

Mrs. George Sommerer went to Youngstown, Wednesday to consult Bonsetter Reese about her arm which she hurt in a fall some time ago.

J. E. Gilbert and O. P. Moore joined the new Chamber of Commerce in Salem. It has just been reorganized with a large list of new members.

The Forrester's Euchre party last Friday evening was well attended. Fred Davis and Clarence Baker won the honors. Another euchre party will be held in two weeks.

The story comes from Salmville that the farmer who became so enraged at one of his horses while plowing the other day that he chopped off the animal's head.

Miss Mary Heintzelman went to Lisbon last Saturday and took part in the contest for the best speller in the county. Nine contestants were entered. The contest and Miss Mary won in the fifth grade, missing nine words out of a hundred.

As Ira Schurenberger was going out to his father's farm last Friday evening he discovered the railroad trestle, north of town on the Ira was equal to the occasion and started a bucket brigade all by himself and put out the fire.

Mrs. Jesse Galbreath, who underwent an operation in the Youngstown City hospital six weeks ago, for the removal of a tumor from the intestines, died at her home in Berlin Center Sunday. The deceased was 75 years old and formerly lived here.

The house of representative has approved the Moore bill, authorizing the governor to name a commission to locate a state normal school in Eastern Ohio. Washingtonville would like to have the proposed school. It would make the town boom as never before.

Hon. Andrew O. Fleming, state representative from Mahoning county, will give the class address at the commencement exercises in the school building here last evening, June 2. Mr. Fleming is one of the best orators in Eastern Ohio. Do not fail to hear him.

Mrs. Mary Gavin of Leetonia, widow of the late Anthony Gavin, who was killed at the plant of the Leetonia Steel company, was awarded a judgment for $3,000 in common pleas court Tuesday morning in settlement of her $50,000 damage claim against the company.

Cross country hikes seem to have become very popular. Mr. young ladies of the high school and next fall, a store of Salem started to walk to Columbiana last Sunday, but when they got to Washingtonville they had to take the car on account of rain. There is nothing more refreshing than exercise in the open air.

Our schools had an exhibit of their school work last evening. County Superintendent J. W. Moore of Lisbon gave an address. He praised their work very much saying it is one of the best displays in the county. The school expects to have a display at the county fair in Lisbon and next fall.

After the school work was over, the audience with a few selections on a victrola which the school contemplates buying.

Misses Clara and Bessie Weikart very pleasantly entertained the Smart Set Sewing Society Tuesday evening. The contest was won by Miss Belle Ballantine. The hostesses served an elegant lunch. The out of town guests were Mrs. Carl Weikart and little son, Mrs. George Ballantine and Miss Belle Ballantine of Leetonia and Mrs. Wm. Gabriel of Salem.

Miss Kathryn Wilson in three weeks. Miss Burns and Russell Vanschoor of Port Jervis, N. Y., arrived in the village Monday evening. They started from their home May 3 to ride to San Francisco on bicycles. They rode 500 miles in ten days and found the trip very mountainous. Rain the past week had hindered their considerable. The young men stayed over night with Sam Platt and left here for Akron to visit the Goodrich Rubber Co. plant. They expect to arrive at San Francisco by August 1.

The $5,000 damage case of Mary Ryan against druggist Joseph D. Ferrall of Leetonia, deliberated just six hours and returned a verdict of $300 in favor of the plaintiff. Mrs. Ryan asked damages on account of the condition of her eyes and vision as a result of the prescription for which was compounded by the defendant. She claimed that Druggist Ferrall made a mistake in compounding the prescription of camphor for an ingredient which has been harmful to the eye. When the case was tried before two years ago, the jury disagreed.

BLANCO

May 19—L. W. Flick and family spent Sunday at John Porter's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kale.

Mrs. Byron Williamson spent several days with relatives in Alliance and Strasburg.

Rezin Swank returned home Thursday after spending a couple of weeks in Warren.

Homer, Oliver and Clyde Heisel, Frank Porter and Emory Kale transacted business in Youngstown Saturday.

Dana Mead spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Clyde Orr, of Rosemont.

Byron Williamson attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Matticks, in Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith were Sunday visitors at W. Felongie's.

Frances Snook was a Monday caller at Mrs. Warren Force's.

Miss Theo Felongie was a Sunday guest of Miss Marie Williamson.

ISLAND

May 19—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Calvin entertained Rev. Henry of Mineral Ridge over Sunday.

Adin Greenamyer, a former hardware merchant of Columbiana, died Saturday at his home in Sileveland.

C. M. Calvin and family of Greenford spent Sunday evening with S. G. McClun and family.

Mrs. David Klingensmith spent Saturday night in Salem with her father, Abner Metzger, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall are entertaining his mother of Middleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good spent Sunday with Daniel Lehman and family.

S. G. McClun called on East Lewis town friends, Sunday.

Miss Gladys Rowe, Ida Weaver, Hannah Wenger, Martha Archer, Adin Martin and Mark Calvin of Oakdale school took the examination at Greenford Saturday.

P. W. Calvin and family of Locust Grove spent Sunday with H. H. Calvin and family.

C. M. Calvin and wife of Greenford, Clarence Lesher and family and Henry Lehman, wife and daughter Alta spent Sunday at Jonas Wiele's.

S. G. McClun is treating his barn to a fresh coat of paint.

Perry Vampelt and family spent Sunday with Edwin Hall and family.

Amos Detroit and family and Mrs. Doubledie of Orrville spent Sunday with A. W. Detroit and family.

Oscar Calvin is sporting a new motorcycle.

Paul Calvin attended the high school Alumni reunion in Greenford Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Lehman and daughter Mollie and Mary Calvin visited H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville Saturday evening.

Harvey Horst and family spent Sunday with B. L. Weaver and wife.

Hefman Coy has purchased an Indian motorcycle with a side car attached.

Rev. Jacob Weaver and wife and Menno Brubaker and wife left Tuesday for Indiana to attend the Mennonite conference.

Abram Weaver and wife and Jonas Knapp and family visited Adam Wenger and family, Sunday.

Ira Horst and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Salome Weaver and family.

Miss Della Wenger visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Zeigler, in North Lima over Sunday.

Mrs. Alva Houts died of rheumatism and heart trouble at her home near North Lima early Monday morning. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Midway Mennonite church.

Jesse Renkenberger of New Baltimore was on the Island Tuesday.

The gas in wells on the Charlie Roller and Anthony Less farms is being piped to Washingtonville.

S. R. Martin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harman Lesher and C. S. Lesher were pleasantly entertained Sunday by Noah Trever and family.

Much-needed rains the past week have refreshed vegetation.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

May 19—A light frost on Monday morning did no damage to vegetation or fruit, of which there will be an abundance of all kinds if no severe frosts occur later.

On account of preaching by Rev. Hensel there will be no young people's meeting Sunday evening.

Frank Frifogle, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yough of Columbiana county recently visited at the home of Eli Frifogle.

Mrs. Carrie Schlierstein has returned home from a visit with relatives in Niles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dick of Youngstown spent Sunday with the latter's brother, James Robeson, in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton of Sharon and Leon Ohi of Youngstown visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ohi.

R. O'Rourke had business in Greenford several days ago.

The brick road from Austintown to the railroad track in this place is now open for light traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Golt of Jackson township spent Sunday here with their daughter, Mrs. Burt Knight.

Chauncey Anderson, who suffered a severe attack of asthma is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and daughter of Lordstown spent Sunday at the home of C. H. Anderson and family.

P. D. Schrum, who purchased a concrete mixer, is putting in the wall for the barn of George S. Jordan which has been raised about eight feet from the surface.

NORTH JACKSON

May 19—Mrs. Tillie is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Corli has returned home from Youngstown where she spent several weeks.

Mr. DeWolf and Misses Rachel and Day Duer are attending summer school in Anfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckis spent Thursday night in Alliance.

Miss Martha King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. King, and Mark Cox of Canfield were married in Lansingville last week Wednesday.

Mr. Evans and son were in Youngstown Tuesday.

The following court item from Stark county will be of interest here where it is well known: The injunction case of Meris et al against Lula Wanamaker of Alliance, wherein plaintiffs sought to prevent defendant from again going into the insurance business after selling out to plaintiffs, was dismissed by Judge Ake Monday afternoon after the contention had been heard pro and con and during which time many witnesses were examined. With the dismissal of the injunction, a damage claim against defendant in the sum of $1000 went with it. The contention of defendant was that when the sale of her business was made to plaintiffs there was no stipulation in the bill of sale that she should not again enter into business, and the court so found.

DIGGING OUT LAST YEAR'S LID

MILLVILLE

May 19—Rufus Greenamyer was called to Cleveland Friday by the serious illness of his brother, Adin, who died Friday evening from a tumor on the brain. Deceased was born in Berlin Center 66 years ago and spent his early life there and in Millville.

His wife, a former resident of this community, Miss Retta Callahan, survived him, together with a son, Paul of Richmond, Ky., and one daughter, Miss Helen at home, two brothers, Dr. J. D. Greenamyer of Niles, Mich., and A. R. of this village, and a sister, Mrs. J. L. Quass, of Cleveland. He was prominent in Masonic circles in Salem and had been a member of all four branches and a past Eminent Commander of Salem Commandery No. 42, Knights Templar. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church of Salem at 2 o'clock, Monday. Interment in Grandview cemetery.

The marriage of Miss Clara V. Detwiler and Doxy S. Kintner of Salem Saturday came a surprise to their many friends in this village. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler of McKinley avenue.

She is a graduate of Salem high school, class of 1913, and until recently had been employed as a bookkeeper in the office of the Sebring Lumber Co. Mr. Kintner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kintner of East Rochester, a graduate of Salem high, class of 1910.

He has been on the editorial staff of the Daily News the past year. Many friends extended congratulations.

Hon. J. L. Zimmerman, who spent a few days with his father, A. Zimmerman, returned home to Springfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Shore and daughter Ruth of Georgetown were guests at the home of Wilfred Moore Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. King has concluded a visit with friends here and returned home to Canton.

While painting a ceiling Thursday Mrs. Frank Zimmerman fell, breaking her arm. The illness of Salem reduced the fracture.

Mrs. W. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, who has been ill with pneumonia, is now able to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Stone and Mrs. W. E. Ward of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. Annie Reese spent a few hours in Salem Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Riverside was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sheehan, Thursday.

NEW ALBANY

May 19—Mrs. Alva Houts and sons Alfred and Harold left Friday for Ravenna where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. Gus Lamprecht of Ashland spent last week with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lepper of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lepper.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cost and Miss Esther Rummel of Salem called on friends here Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Maybelle Miller of Winona spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dougherty.

On Saturday, May 22, the Albany ball team will play the Canfield Normal team in Canfield and on Sunday, May 23, the same teams will play in Albany.

EAST LEWISTOWN

May 19—J. H. Engler has sold his blacksmith shop in this place to his son, C. W. Engler, who will continue the business.

Jacob Langenreger of Youngstown had business here one day last week.

The sick in this neighborhood mentioned last week are all on the road to recovery.

William Day of North Lima is plowing for L. M. Mellinger, using a tractor engine and gang plow.

Ray and Roy Shank, who reside near New Waterford, attended church here last Sunday night.

Lester Burns was in Columbiana Saturday to see Dr. Felger.

Recent rains have greatly benefited growing crops.

Some frost in lowlands Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

A number of people from here attended commencement exercises of the North Lima high school. Carl Lesher of this place was a member of the graduating class.

People generally in this community read the Dispatch, realizing that it gives the news of Mahoning county week in and week out.

MILTON

May 19—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eckis and daughter Flora and Mrs. Carl Shrader and little Pauline took an auto ride to Berlin one evening last week.

Ansel Johnson, a life-long resident at Baldwin's Corners and for the past two years has been doing the damage by lighting the Eckis barn and a small house on the Roth farm.

Miss Doris Diver and Miss Dorothea Sutton visited Mrs. Sarah Florence last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Diver expects to take a trip to California this summer, taking in the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Larue Hawkins of Berlin Center had business here last Thursday.

Frank Miller & Co. are baling hay for David Stille and others.

Mrs. Vane Creed and little daughter of Pittsburgh are visiting in the home of Wm. Creed.

The Carver-Baker Co., sawyers, of Yale, have moved their mill to farm formerly owned by James Hine, preparatory to sawing timber for Glenn Creed's new barn. The men are boarding at S. C. Rose's.

Ground has been broken for the new grange hall and work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. All who will contribute work either with teams or otherwise will be thanked. Many hands make light work. A hall such as the one to be erected will be a great boon to Milton township.

Misses Viola and Grace Eckis were home over Sunday.

Carpenters built a fine garage for Alf. Detcheon last week.

Preaching in the Orr's Corners church next Sunday. All are invited.

NEW BUFFALO

May 19—Dr. Leimbach of Greenford called here Saturday and Sunday.

Ray Smith and wife, Earl Rothgeb and Jessie Minard moved to Warren Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chinnock.

William McCormick and wife of Struthers visited Henry Hess Saturday evening and Sunday.

William Geis and wife and Mrs. John Morris motored to Petersburg Sunday afternoon, taking Conrad Hess home and then visited Ohi's chicken farm north of Poland; saw a lot of chickens of all sizes and helped gather some of the eggs for the day. The largest number of eggs gathered in one day this season was 1950.

Harry Beard of Youngstown spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. Emma Beard.

Archie Beard had a horse die Monday and another was taken sick Tuesday.

NORTH CANFIELD STREET

May 19—Miss Alena Gardner spent Monday and Tuesday with her aunt, Mrs. B. K. DeCamp, in Youngstown.

Roy Cruthers is suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Eva Corli entertained members of the graduating class of the Canfield grammar school last Saturday.

Katherine Clay spent Tuesday night with Margaret Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clay were in Youngstown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Yeager spent Saturday evening with M. J. Cruthers.

Ren Knight is now employed by Ezra Yeager.

J. C. Allspaugh is suffering with lumbago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. DeCamp were in Youngstown Saturday.

Mabel Forney has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Charlie Corli visited at H. C. Clay's Monday.

Arrel Knight called at Ezra Yeager's Tuesday night.

North Street roads are being improved.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. DeCamp visited at Flora Fink's Sunday.

Ezra Yeager and family and Earl Yeager motored to Ellsworth Saturday evening.

Lewis Corli of Ohi's crossing called on H. C. Clay Friday evening.

Charles Williams attended church in Canfield Sunday.

Sherman Corli and Mrs. Mary Wells called on C. J. Herbert Sunday evening.

Glenn DeCamp called on his parents Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Crum recently visited their son in Berlin.

Mrs. Grace Shafer and daughter Evelyn and son William called at H. C. Clay's Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nathan Blott was in Canfield Tuesday.

Mr. A. B. Detcheon recently called at J. C. Allspaugh's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clay motored to North Jackson to see the former's father who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and Grace Shafer recently called in Meander.

Beatrice Clay called on Mrs. Rachel Yeager Sunday.

Sarah Sanzenbacher called on her brother Sherman Wednesday.

Rev. I. N. Burger preached his farewell sermon in Zion Reformed church last Sunday.

Mrs. Nelson Shafer and Mrs. Grace Shafer celebrated their birthdays last Thursday and had a chicken supper.

Gilbert Schurenberger called on H. C. Clay Monday night.

J. C. Allspaugh and family were in Canfield Sunday.

Lydia Everett of Beach Bottom called on Mrs. Thomas Yeager Friday.

Charles Scott and family called on M. J. Cruthers Sunday.

Emery Cronick of Youngstown spent Sunday at C. J. Herbert's.

Lester Baird did paering for Thomas Yeager Saturday.

August Greier called at H. C. Clay's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner were in Youngstown Saturday.

Services at the Evangelical church Sunday morning, May 23.

J. C. Allspaugh's brother and sister of Columbus is spending a few days with him.

Mrs. Nelson Shafer was in Youngstown Wednesday.

PROSPECT HILL